

Angled component, Häfele Pacofix DF, panel distance 15 mm

Häfele Pacofix is a Häfele own-house product that has no connection to the third-party products “Keku” or KUSANKE Beschlagtechnik GmbH & Co. KG – Installation with euro screws with countersunk head

Art. no. 262.51.381

Article details

The Pacofix panel connector is fully compatible with all plastic fittings of the third-party product Keku.

Häfele Pacofix is a Häfele own-house product that has no connection to the third-party products “Keku” or KUSANKE Beschlagtechnik GmbH & Co. KG.

- Double partition fittings are used for:
 - Attaching sound insulation to the door leaf
 - Construction of 2-leaf frame doors
 - Doubling of cabinet sides in the door recess area
 - Connecting frame elements
 - Linking elements
 - Manufacturing sandwich elements
 - Installing lightweight partition walls
 - Fixing wall elements (cabinet construction)
 - Door construction with panel design

Colour/finish	Black
Area of application	For doubling the panels, for panel distance 15 mm
Product Material	Polycarbonate
For series drilled holes	System 32
Temperature range	-100–135 °C
Material	Plastic

Additional information attributes

Do not treat with chemical solutions or aggressive grease.
Do not adjust by hammering.

Installation drawings

